I'd just like to thank EVERYONE who came to Kyps last night to support us, we had nearly 150 people and it was AWESOME! So thank you so much everyone, as well as everyone who put so much hard work into making sure everything didn't fall through!

And for any of you who sadly couldn't make it, I'm going to post a gallery of photos from the event, so you can see the fantastic stuff you missed out on... (including Rob's dancing...)
